

Judith Baker

Judith is available for singing, speaking and songwriting at a variety of events and venues that range from small groups to mega size. She will partner with you to make your event successful and exciting. Whether she is speaking at an event or singing her heart out, Judith shares "I am not interested in being one more artist. I am more interested in being His servant. If you could mix – Mandisa, Sandi Patty, Mariah Carey and Mahalia Jackson you would get Judith. With a four and a half octave range and a powerful voice, Judith Baker is the real deal. This bi-racial, ex-Jehovah's Witness belts out her heart felt original lyrics and you will know she is about her Father's business. Partner with Judith on this incredible journey and experience "music and evangelism that ministers to the soul!" As a dynamic speaker or professional singer - and with her amazing range and diverse background, she has a unique God given gift that spans generations, denominations, genres, and octaves.

About Judith - Since relocation to Nashville, TN, Judith has worked with some of the best in Christian music like Craig Adams, Eddie Crook, Jubilee Music Artist, Indieheaven, Indie Connect, and several groups and choirs. She contributed her "high notes" to Larnelle Harris and Allison Durham Speer on "I've Just Seen Jesus," in a combined choir concert. She has had press in the Singing News, Christian Planet Magazine, Worship Musician Magazine, Christian Musician Magazine and made an appearance on "Music City Explosion - Inspirational." In 2009, Judith released a song on mainstream radio "His Eye is on the Sparrow" which is still getting National air time on several radio stations. In 2009, this song charted in the top 20 on the Jubilee Music Artist Charts.

Judith has several recordings, speaking products and DVD's including her most recent CD titled "In Spirit and Truth," a compilation of Christian originals she has mostly written. Recognition at the Millie Lewis Actors, Model and Talent Convention as excelling in the performance arts lead to a brief moment in the "Billy Graham, The Early Years" movie. Judith also loves to contribute her talents in the studio as a background and demo vocalist for other artist. She pitches her original songs in different markets. With her wide range and ability to change her voice, she sings the majority of her own background vocals creating what "Doug Gazlay" of D-grooves, calls a signature "train sound."

Singing since the age of four, she knew early music was her calling. At age 14 she wrote her first song and went on to compete in preliminary Miss America Pageants. She has studied music, music business and business management. Judith has traveled with many Christian and secular groups including a world tour with the "Army Soldier Show;" and a "USO tour. In her career she has performed in 30 states, at 38 military installations, and in 4 countries. Judith has performed for numerous dignitaries to note: former Vice-President Dan Quayle; military Chiefs of Staff and Generals; the Mayor of Tokyo, Japan; and sang at the National Cathedral in Washington D.C. for the ordination of the first African-American Catholic Cardinal. She has devoted twenty-one years of her life to serving her country through a combination of active and Reserve duty. Judith is proudly retired.

A professional speaker and retired military instructor, Judith uses proven techniques to get the point across. Judith's vast experience in the corporate world with organizations like: Trevecca Nazarene University, the States of Idaho and Tennessee, the National Safety Council, the American Red Cross, the US Army, the Gospel Music Association and Camp Electric have paved the way. She is an experienced and effective communicator. Judith is sincere, authentic and at times humorous when she shares what God lays on her heart.

Judith freelances in acting, modeling, photography, computers, visual graphic arts, and multimedia productions. She has been known to create her own accompaniment DVD's.
